August 2015

Greetings,

All members of your practice play an important role in keeping your patients healthy.

Scheduling the semi-annual visit for the pets in your practice is the responsibility of the entire team including the doctors, managers, and staff. There are key protocols that everyone should know in order to optimize semi-annual visit success.

Semi-Annual Visit Compliance Involves all Members of Your Practice

Veterinarian

Plan your medical protocol. Clients are looking for your medical guidance, so determine what the "twice-a-year" plan should be for them to follow.

Outline your protocols:

- * Core visit
- * Additional needs based on risk assessment
- * Timing and intervals for cyclic services

Manager

Integrate the medical protocol with your practice management system. Make sure the staff are trained in your protocols, on how to use your practice software for follow-up, and on the best client communication practices.

Perform the following setup and review procedures:

- * Bill Code Item Setup
- * Reminder Setup
- * Recall Setup
- * Reminder Cleanup

Technician

Educate clients on your medical protocols and the importance of semi-annual visits. It is important that clients have a clear understanding of their pet's medical needs so they commit to following your doctor's protocol.

Receptionist

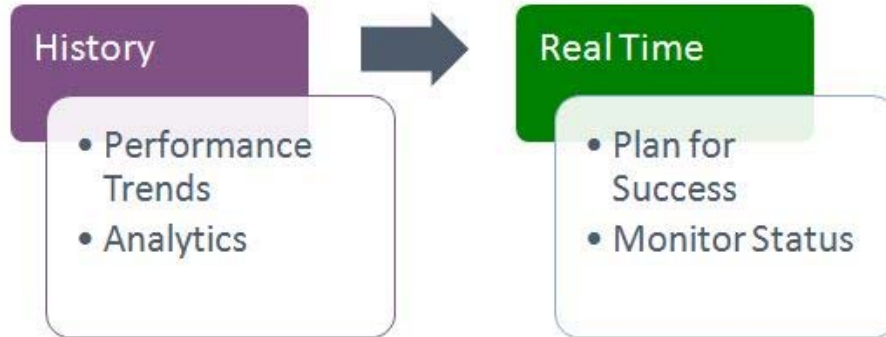

Always look for opportunities to schedule appointments. Every time you communicate with a client, check their pet's record for services that are due, coming due, or overdue-and schedule their pet.
